

Created by Olympian and British
Champion James Beevers

Little Musketeers classes are designed and managed by Olympian and British Champion James Beevers. James is a 3rd generation fencer emulating the success of his mother, father and grandfather who all fenced at international and Olympic level.

What does James say...

"Little Musketeers courses are inspired by my love of the Olympic sport of fencing. Each and every exercise has been carefully designed to enable children to not only develop the specific skills of the sport but also skills for life."

What is Little Musketeers?

- The UK's No. 1 dedicated primary school fencing programme
- An official national supplier of specialist fencing services for British Fencing

- A welcoming and friendly club giving young children from the age of 5 a fun and safe introduction to the Olympic sport of fencing

- A company that is endorsed and recommended by Olympians, educationalists and scientists

Why Little Musketeers?

- Classes provide a unique mix of mental, social and physical stimulation
- Classes promote self discipline, and responsibility
- Classes develop co-ordination, speed, agility and strength
- Classes promote the importance of sportsmanship and teamwork
- Dr. Adele Diamond, Tier 1 Cognitive Developmental Neuroscientist, University of British Columbia, says of the programme:

"Little Musketeers challenges all the critical executive functions -- including self-control, focused attention, working memory, and creative problem-solving -- in a way that's fun for kids. Kids clearly derive great joy from Little Musketeers; they help and encourage one another, and a supportive community develops; those emotional and social benefits of Little Musketeers work to support the executive function benefits of the program."

What do we offer?
